The Cascade River. Named for a spectacular series of cascades, the Cascade River is one of the largest of the North Shore rivers. The river flows down one ledge after another, dropping 900 feet during the last 3 miles. Enjoy wonderful views from the footbridge spanning the river and from several other viewing platforms.

North Shore Gorgeous: Cascade River State Park ...

This event involved a large landslide that occurred east of Marblemount on the south side of the Cascade River in the isolated recreational community of CRP. This slide occurred in the late 1960's and destroyed several recreational cabins and covered a large number of vacant lots with debris; we were unable to determine if persons were injured or killed as a result of this slide.

Great Hiking on Lower Falls Cascade River Loop The North Shore of Lake Superior is a special place and there are many great hiking trails to be found. While I found several other hiking trails more spectacular, hiking along the Lower Falls Cascade River Loop at Cascade River State Park was still great.
